

Legacy of Love

2018 African American Caregivers Forum

FREE

5 CEUs offered

November 10, 2018 • 9 a.m.–3 p.m.
Doubletree Hotel Southcenter

This unique, culturally-focused event draws family caregivers from throughout the Pacific Northwest.

featuring presentations,
exhibits, entertainment,
lunch & drawings
for caregivers

Register today at <https://bit.ly/2PNk8od> or call 206-706-7084

"Caregiver Hope, Love & Resiliency"
George Dicks,
BA, GMHS, RCMHP
Harborview Mental Health Services

"Food for Thought:
Culturally Competent
Dialogue about Alzheimer's,
Caregiving, and Advocacy
among African Americans"
Cary Goodman,
Balm in Gilead

"Our Lives, Our Choices: Planning for End-of-Life"
Dr. Jim deMaine, Retired
Pulmonary/Critical Care
Physician, Group Health

PLUS "Caregivers: Loving from the Front Line," a caregiver panel comprising Connie Bown, Daphne Jones & Taylene Watson

City of Seattle
Mayor Jenny A. Durkan

Mayor's Council for African American Elders
Seattle Human Services Department

Aging and Disability Services
Area Agency on Aging for Seattle and King County

For accessibility information or disability accommodations, e-mail Karen.Winston@seattle.gov